Commissioners' Busy Month.

The county commissioners were at the jail in Brooklyn Wednesday for a regular monthly meeting. The commissioners, who are having a very busy month, have not completed their annual reports, which, however, will be ready in a short time.

Men and the road roller have been at work on the new stretch of state road, Elmville to Dayville, fixing the borders and doing the general finishing up that is required after doing the main contract.

Cotton Workers Coming.

The population of Killingly may be looked for to increase during the next year. The doubling of the capacity of the mill at Williamsville is going to mean the influx of a large number of cotton workers.

As the trading center for this section, much of their business will be transacted in Danielson, and Dayville will also get a good share of the trade.

Fifty Bohemians to Hunt Coons.

About 50 members of the Bohemian club have decided to go to Camp Whipperwill Saturday night for the annual hunt and venison supper.

Arrangements are practically completed and one of the pleasantest events of the season is looked for.

Good Market for Cauliflower.

As showing the possibilities for doing business if the right kind of crops are produced, a Brooklyn truck farmer is finding a ready market in Boston and New Haven for his cauliflower.

Barrels of cauliflower that he has produced on his place. The shipments are made from Danielson.

Offices for Judge of Probate.

The offices of the Judge of Probate of Killingly in the town hall building have been comfortably fitted and have been viewed this week by many citizens who have had occasion to visit the building.

They are on the same floor and in close proximity to the selectmen's offices and one of the rooms may be used by the selectmen if they so desire.

Car Leaves Rails.

Car No. 19 of the Providence and Danielson road, which has been something of a hoodoo, left the rails a short distance east of East Killingly this week for the third time within a few months.

As in the previous cases, no one was injured and the car was gotten back on the rails in a short time.

POSTAL SAVINGS BONDS

To Be Issued Jan. 1st—Of Three Denominations, Bearing Two and One-Half Per Cent.

Postmaster C. A. Potter is in receipt of information in relation to the postal savings bonds which are to be issued on Jan. 1. These bonds are to be exchangeable by postal savings depositors for their deposits and are to be in denominations of $20, $50 and $100.

bearing interest at the rate of two and one-half per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from the date of issue, both principal and interest payable 30 days from date in United States gold coin.

Application for conversion of deposits into bonds must be received by the postmaster before Dec. 15, and at the office where the certificates are issued.

Postal savings deposits converted into bonds are not to be counted as a part of the maximum of $500 allowed one depositor, and there is to be no limitation on the amount of the available postal savings bonds which may be acquired finally by a depositor.

Mischief Makers Doomed.

The plain people of the country may realize pretty soon what this ghost dancing by a parcel of mischief-fattened politicians is costing them and then there will be a revulsion of sentiment in the direction of plain American horse sense.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

CITY HALL.

Probable Future Use of Old High School Building.

Alderman J. Richard Carpenter, Ernest L. Davis and John A. Dady have been named by the common council as a committee on the part of the city to confer with the selectmen relative to the use of the old high school building for the use of town and city officials in the transaction of municipal business.

An investigation as to the feasibility of the plan will be made and a report filed. The suggestion was frequently heard after the present fine new high school was authorized last the old high school building would make a fine town and city hall. There is plenty of room over there for all the town and city offices.

Building Permits Granted.

The common council has granted building permits as follows: Addition to residence of Joseph Emmons on Water street; to build a shed in the rear of the residence of L. M. Keith, on Grove street; to build a shed, for an addition to shop on Ivory street, to Victor Chapelle for an addition to house on Chapel street.

Attention, Farmers! DOLLARS BONUS

For Fattest and Biggest Turkey Raised $10.00
Next Best $5.00
Third $5.00

The Bulletin proposes to capture the three fattest and largest turkeys to be offered for the Thanksgiving market in Windham and New London Counties.

They must be natives—hatched and grown in these two counties. The Bulletin will buy the prize birds at the regular market price in addition to the prize to be awarded.

The turkeys offered for prize must have head and feathers off, entrails drawn and wings cut off at first joint. The first prize of $10.00 to the largest and fattest young turkey; second prize of $5.00 to the second largest and fattest young turkey; third prize of $5.00 to the largest and fattest turkey raised in New London or Windham Counties.

The contest is open to any man, woman, boy or girl residing in these counties. The turkeys must be submitted for examination and weighing the Tuesday before Thanksgiving at 12 o'clock noon.

For the largest and fattest young turkey $10.00 will be awarded in addition to the market price. This turkey will be given to the Rock Nook Home.

To the raiser of the second young turkey in size a prize of $5.00 in addition to the market price will be given. This turkey will furnish the Thanksgiving dinner for the Sheltering Arms.

To the raiser of the largest and fattest turkey over a year old a prize of $5.00 in addition to the market price. This will go to the County Home for Children for a Thanksgiving dinner.

The judges will be disinterested persons who will weigh the turkeys at Somers Bros' market.

All turkeys that are eligible for competition will be purchased at the market price, so any turkey raiser who enters a bird in the contest is sure of selling the bird whether a prize is won or not.

New Haven.—Judge Studley in the probate court has been asked to pass official judgment that Edward Carberry, a brother of Peter W. Carberry, who was sealer of weights and measures for many years, be declared legally dead. He is one of the heirs of the estate, and has not been heard from for over seven years. This measure is being taken that the estate may be settled up.

To Remedy Business Conditions.

New York, Nov. 8.—President Seth Low of the National Civic Federation today inaugurated a plan to assemble and tabulate the views of representative men throughout the country concerning remedial measures to deal with the business situation as it relates to the Sherman anti-trust act. To this end a series of eleven questions was addressed to some 20,000 representative men—manufacturers, farmers, merchants, lawyers, bankers, political economists, labor leaders, etc.

A Mail Carrier's Load

seems heavier when he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Dunham, mail carrier at Atchison, Kan., says: "I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. When I carried a heavy load of mail my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago I started taking Foley's Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever." Lee & Osgood Co.
